The demand for Aircraft Airframe and Powerplant Mechanics continues to increase. Current median earnings for these jobs is more than $24 per hour. Explore careers in Aviation that will help you earn certification from the Federal Aviation Administration to qualify for jobs in this field. www.broward.edu/aviation

$24 PER HOUR

The average hourly pay for a Database Administrator in Broward County is $36.05. Earn an IT degree in as little as 15 months with competency-based programs. www.broward.edu/computerspecialist

$36.05 PER HOUR

The ever-increasing population in South Florida means educators are in demand and will be needed for many years to come. The average salary of a teacher in Broward County is $55,704. Broward College offers several pathways to teaching. www.broward.edu/tep

$55,704 SALARY

The demand for Logisticians is rising with growth in trade, export and globalization. The median pay for these jobs is more than $28 per hour. Learn how a degree in this field can help you land a high-wage, in-demand career. www.broward.edu/logistics

$28+ PER HOUR

Hot Jobs data is courtesy of Economic Modeling Specialists Intl. http://www.economicmodeling.com